

Christmas in the USA

Below this text, you can find some interesting facts about how you celebrate Christmas in the USA. A lot of things are similar och equal between USA and Sweden, but some things are also different.

- In USA, Santa Claus visits at December 25, which is Christmas Eve.
- There is usually a Christmas dinner, but not with the same dishes as in Sweden. Christmas turkeys are really common.
- Many people (both Christians and non-Christians) go to church on Christmas Day to celebrate the birth of Jesus.
- It is popular to decorate houses and other stuff with Christmas lights in the USA, like it is in Sweden and many other countries too.
- Many people leave some snacks or food for Santa Claus. This is something that some people also do in Sweden and other countries as well.

Facts for point three to five is from the website "Whychristmas.com": <https://www.whychristmas.com/cultures/usa.shtml>. (The link might be changed in the future. KlassKlur is not affiliated or associated with the website in any way and not responsible for its content).